Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Fontaine.

Elizabeth Fontaine, wife of A. G. Fontaine, passed quietly over to the boundless shores of the unknown world. Death came so easily that those who watched scarcely believed it other than a peaceful, quiet sleep. The deceased had only reached the age of twenty-three, when the unwelcome visitor entered at the door and claimed his victim. The funeral will take place from the late residence of the deceased on the south side of the old town plaza, at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Friends and relatives of the family are invited to be present.
